Calvin Hicks

Services for Calvin Lloyd Hicks, 48, Oakes, N.D., were held Wednesday, Nov. 15, at the Church of the Nazarene, Oakes, with the Rev. Victor McIntyre officiating. Burial with military rites was made in the Oakeview Cemetery. He was struck by a pickup truck about 6:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 11, while he was crossing a street in Missoula, Mont. Death was instantaneous.

Mr. Hicks was born June 22, 1924, near Frederick. In 1936 he moved with his parents to Oakes where he has since resided except for several months during World War II when he fought in the Pacific Theater.

He is survived by his widow, Minnie; three daughters, Marilyn, Debra, Linda; three sons, Lee, David, Steven; one sister, Mrs. Edward (Frances) Bauer, Stirum, N.D.; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hicks, Oakes. He was preceded in death by one son and two brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meythaler attended the funeral services. Mr. Hicks and Mrs. Meythaler were double cousins.
